

TOMBSTONE PROSPECTOR

JANUARY - - - 21, 1889

LOCAL NOTES.

U. S. Marshal Meade is in Prescott. The 15th Legislative Assembly meets to-day at Prescott.

S. C. Bagg is in Bisbee on a business trip.

W. J. Taylor came in on Sunday's coach from El Paso, Texas.

Mrs. Thompson returned yesterday from W. C. Green's ranch at Hereford.

Peter Moore and wife, of Hereford, arrived in this city to-day from their ranch.

The funeral of "Vick," the man who was found dead last Saturday, took place to-day.

Mr. Riley, buyer for Vickery & Hinds, of Los Angeles, arrived in town yesterday.

Burstled water pipes were the order of the first three hours after sunrise yesterday, and this morning.

Sol Pierce and wife are over from Bisbee taking in the sights of Tombstone.

We are pained to learn of the serious illness of the wife of Thomas Walker at Bisbee.

Harry Stevenson and wife returned Sunday from their wedding trip to San Francisco.

Capt. Cummings, Superintendent of the Omega Mining Company, arrived in town Saturday last from Nogales.

The WEEKLY PROSPECTOR was issued yesterday morning. It is replete with valuable information. Copies to be had at this office ready for mailing.

It is reported that a Chicago company who recently purchased some mines in the Quijotas will in a few days commence to work them.

J. T. Fitzpatrick, the man arrested at Nogales three weeks ago for attempted murder, has been adjudged insane and will be removed to the insane asylum at Phoenix.

Hon. W. K. Meade gives a very flattering account of mining in Tombstone district. B. C. Koffman has erected a $60,000 hoist on the Rattlesnake mine and has plenty of rich ore. His deepest shaft is between 500 and 600 feet deep.—Courier.

The next Territorial fair will be held at the grounds, near Phoenix, says the Arizonan, on October 16th next, and will continue for four days. The directors, we believe, have made a mistake in not giving a week's fair as the cost would be but slightly increased.

Will Cox started down to the junction the other morning for the purpose of taking his ferry boat on to Gila Bend, from which point a road is being graded to the new mines. His little boat is still running at the old crossing opposite this city.—Phoenix Arizonan.

Treasurer Ben Heney is now engaged preparing the Pima county delinquent list for publication. The law requires the list to be published not later than the first Monday in February. Those who pay their taxes before that time will keep their names out of the list.—Citizen.

The Phenix Water Works company is now actively engaged in perfecting all arrangements for the new plant, and in a few days will make a complete canvass of the town for the purpose of ascertaining the number of persons who will sign contracts for water. We trust that the new enterprise will be heartily supported.—Arizonan.

The children of the public schools in Tucson have appointed an Arbor Day on which to plant trees about the school grounds. This is a praiseworthy example for the Tombstone public schools to follow, providing that the requisite amount of water to keep the trees alive could be guaranteed to Young America to reward them for their enterprise.

Don't fail to get one or more tickets in the Raffle at Henry Campbell's saloon for the elegant Black Bear and Wolf Dog Spectacle and Rug. Only 85 tickets for the two robes and rug. Two highest first and second choice; lowest, third choice. These are new and choice goods and much cheaper than retail prices. 1-214

The Last of Earth.

The remains of Mrs. Theresa McClure, wife of E. O. McClure of this city, were taken to Los Angeles for interment, accompanied by the grief-stricken husband and the two children of the deceased—a boy and a girl, aged three and six years. Mrs. McClure's parents live at the latter place. Mr. McClure was on his way home from Los Angeles, and his wife had gone to Fairbank to meet him, when she was stricken with the dread disease which caused her untimely death. Her husband arrived in time to be with her in her last moments. They had been married but seven years, and the husband and father has the sympathy of the community in which he is so favorably known, in this hour of his terrible grief.

Mysterious Death.

A middle-aged man known by the name of "Vick," was found dead in his bed at Sullivan's lodging house on Saturday evening. He had been missed for several days and the proprietor of the house, on making inquiries regarding his whereabouts, could ascertain nothing of his movements for the previous week. He burst in the door to his room and found him lying on the bed, his clothes, hat and boots on, stiff, stark and dead. How long he had been in that condition remains a mystery. A coroner's jury was unable to throw any light on the subject and rendered a verdict that he came to his death from causes unknown. No signs of violence were visible on his person.

Left the Track.

Passengers who arrived here recently from Albuquerque, says the Prescott Courier, tell us that on Sunday morning last, about 2 o'clock, when the west bound passenger was at a small place east of Winslow, and while backing off the main track to permit an east bound train to pass, the rear sleeper ran off the track, was turned over and pretty badly smashed. The occupants of the upper berth were treated very roughly but not a life was lost. Ladies who were thrown out of their beds on the floor, or into other beds, were both hurt and shocked.

The New Bishop.

The consecration of Rev. J. Mills Kendrick as Bishop of Arizona and New Mexico, to fill the place left vacant by the death of Bishop Dunlop, took place with imposing ceremonies at the Trinity Episcopal Church at Columbus, Ohio, January 18th. The service was conducted by Bishop Tuttle, of Missouri, assisted by Bishop Puleston, of Central Pennsylvania, and Dudley of Kentucky.

Joyce on Pie.

A reporter of the S. F. Examiner has been interviewing the sporting men of San Francisco on the subject of pie. M. E. Joyce, formerly of this city, said: "I have always liked pie. There are some parts of Arizona where pies are used as currency. I have known instances where they have been stacked up on gaming tables, and they were just as good as gold."

Northern Arizonans are offering every inducement to the clouds to give down plenty of snow, so that our friends of the great southern valleys (including those of the Salt river) will have plenty of water to irrigate with. Those of them who are coming here to "lend capital, can irrigate with stronger fluids.—Courier.

Charlie Shillbell says he has not lost confidence in the richness of Harqua Hala yet. Charlie is interested in ten claims there. He has some rock from one of the claims that is certainly rich in gold, but no work has been done yet and he agrees that Harqua Hala is a poor place for a man to go to now as there is no work going on.—Citizen.

The Prescott Courier says: Florence, the beautiful country town of Pinal county, would not object to being the capital; neither would Tombstone, Tempe, Solomonsville, Yuma, Holbrook, Flagstaff, Kingman, St. Johns and many other places. If it is to be placed on wheels we want China valley to have a show for its capture. If none of these places suit, we would like to be told why Tucson's claim should not be considered.

B. Martinez and associates have returned from the so-called placers near the Cocopah mountains in Lower California. Mr. Martinez says that there is nothing in the report that the camp will never amount to anything.—Arizona Sentinel.

Shooting Affray at Harqua Hala.

The following full particulars of the killing at the Harqua Hala are from the Arizona Sentinel, published at Yuma:

On Monday, January 7th, Alonzo Johnson left the Agua Caliente Springs with two passengers in a buckboard, bound for the Harqua Hala mines. After an uneventful trip the party reached the camp on Tuesday evening. A number of new saloons had just started up and Johnson proceeded to imbibe as much of the red liquor as possible, and soon became noticeable that he had succeeded in becoming very drunk. He, however, seemed to sober up somewhat and began gambling, in which pastime he continued all night and the day following. On Wednesday Johnson became involved in a dispute with a man by the name of Peter Burns, who endeavored to keep out of his way, but the half-drunken man followed him up and continued to abuse him. Burns at last succeeded in evading him, but in the evening they again met and Johnson resumed his abuse and made a rush at Burns with an uplifted monkey-wrench. In a moment there was a flash and a report of a revolver, and Johnson was lying on the floor of the saloon with a ghastly bullet hole through his forehead. Alonzo Johnson was a native of Yuma and about 22 years of age. There was nothing vicious about him but when drinking he was quarrelsome, although he was never known to have injured any one. He was a very large and powerful man. P. Burns, the man who did the shooting, is well known in the Territory and was formerly a resident of Phoenix; his reputation is good and the general opinion is that he acted in self-defense. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of justifiable homicide, but the proceedings were irregular, there being no officer at Harrisburg qualified to act as coroner, consequently an examination will be held before Judge Mabbett on the arrival of the witnesses here from the scene of the killing.

Sal. and Kil.

A friend at our elbow (old saying) tells us that a committee of sporting citizens of Prescott have waited upon Mayor Howard and requested him to open communications with the backers of Sullivan and Kilrain and assure them that the sum of $15,000 will be put up as an inducement to have the bully, big boys pummed each other near the mountain town. The Mayor will, undoubtedly, do as requested, and Yavapai county may "have the honor" of being the battle ground of earth's greatest sluggers. If so, the Courier will eclipse its former "extra" record, sure.—Courier.

Our reporter while strolling up Allen street this morning, was attracted by the walk of Joe McPherson who was only hitting the ground in its high places. The cause of all this was the arrival this morning at 8 o'clock, of a bouncing girl, to gladden the hearts of its parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McPherson.

The Knoxville Whig says that while searching through his father's effects ticket agent Moffett found a gourd over one hundred years old. It contained many old papers, among them a note from Davy Crockett, payable to William Moffett, for one shilling and three pence for a barrel of whiskey and a keg of cider. It's pretty late to give Davy away, but that's the kind of a man he was.

A Chicago paper says there is a town in Alabama which has not a negro within its borders. It is the town of Cullman, which is named after a rich German who wished to found a colony of his own race in the Alabama fruit-growing region. It has a population of 2,500. It is needless to add that as you pass through you will find from 50 to 100 colored people on the depot platform, and that over 200 live in the town.

Men who build houses or factories should figure on wind pressure. It is not more than once in five years that a gale blowing sixty miles an hour sweeps the country, but when it does come the buildings are tested. There was a terrible weak spot some where in that Pennsylvania silk mill.

Another Version.
Mayor Fleming, of Silver City, who recently returned from Solomonsville, states that the feeling there is very strong against the cowboys who killed Sol. Luna's sheep herders. Fleming says there is no question but what it was an unprovoked and cold-blooded murder. All of the men were shot in the back and powder-burned, which is a mute contradiction of the statement made by the cowboys that the Mexicans fired on them first. The circumstances go to show that the men were sitting around their fires when they were assassinated. Two of the bodies had not been found, but the cowboys said that they were all killed but two boys aged 7 and 9 years. The boys were spared and finally made their way into Camp Apache almost dead with hunger, fatigue and exposure. The sheep were eighteen miles from the ranch of the Chiricahua cattle company, and were being moved towards Springerville. If there is any law in Arizona these murderers will be hung. They are worse enemies to a country than Apaches. If justice is not done in this matter the officials of Graham county will be to blame and capitalists will be pretty apt to give that county a wide berth in the future.

Two Trains Per Day.
Last evening, says the Phoenix Herald, the Chamber of Commerce appointed a committee to wait upon Col. Masten, the manager of the M. & P. road, to make arrangements with him for two trains per day over the road to connect with the mail trains passing eastward over the S. P. in the evening, and westward twelve hours later or in the morning. The committee waited upon Col. Masten this morning, and were kindly received, and arrangements were readily made for the desired service which will begin next Monday. A petition has been sent into the department for two mail services per day over the road, which will undoubtedly be granted and which will help to pay the expenses of the extra train.

COUNTY RECORDS.
The following instruments were filed for record in the Recorder's office to-day:
